

GERMANS CAPTURE TOWN OF DIXMUDE

INVADERS RESUME ATTACK BETWEEN COAST AND LYS

COUNTRY BETWEEN DIXMUDE AND YPRES IS AGAIN SCENE OF FURIOUS BATTLE—GERMANS CLAIM TO HAVE RE- PULSED ALL ATTACKS.

London, Nov. 11.—The Germans have resumed their attack on the allied line between the coast and the Lys river and while the French claim generally to have held their positions the Germans have succeeded in capturing the town of Dixmude which has been the center of some of the fiercest and most sanguinary fighting of the war.

The country between Dixmude and Ypres where the belligerents have been engaged in violent attacks and counter attacks for weeks past and where the losses have been heavier even than those in the battle of the Yser is again the scene of a battle, which for fury has seldom if ever been equalled.

Behind Dixmude is the direct road to Dunkirk, one of the French ports on which the Germans have set their hearts and if they can break through here the allies will be compelled to fall back to new positions. The invaders have therefore been concentrating their forces at this point and their success in taking Dixmude, where they claim to have captured 500 prisoners and positions to the west of Langemarck where, according to the Berlin report, 2,000 prisoners fell into their hands, shows that the statements, so freely made, that they have been sending troops from the west to Poland are without foundation. As a matter of fact military men here believe the Germans, as soon as they saw it was impossible to carry out their design of capturing Warsaw, despatched troops from that region to the west, not imagining that the Russian pursuit could be carried out with the rapidity with which it has been.

All Attacks Repulsed.

At other points along the battle front in France the French official communication claims some successes for the allies but the German headquarters staff declares that all attacks have been repulsed.

It is considered quite certain that with the enormous forces required for the effort to get through to the coast and to protect their own country from Russian invasion the Germans will not be able to throw any additional troops into the lines which stretch through Northern France and along the Franco-German border.

On the other hand, the French, whose army is growing daily, might attempt an offensive against Lorraine or Alsace as a diversion which would relieve the pressure in the west.

The Germans, according to Petrograd despatches, have suffered a more serious defeat on the east Prussian border than the official statements have disclosed. Advances from the Russian capital today state that in the recent fighting there the Russians have captured more than 20,000 prisoners together with quantities of guns and munitions.

Advance Astonishes Experts.

The Russian advance in Poland, which has been at the rate of four to five miles daily, has astonished the military experts and it is not surprising to hear that they are picking up many foot sore and weary German stragglers.

This advance of horse, foot and artillery, has continued for eighteen days.

In Galicia the Russians continue to push the Germans back but the Austrians are having the revenge along the Serbian border which they threaten to cross in an endeavor to crush Serbia before Russia can come to her assistance. Of the fighting between Turkey and the allies the reports are so contradictory that there is no reconciling them. Turkey reports victories against Russia and Great Britain which those two countries deny.

After the predictions that the war could not be ended within three years, the British prime minister, Mr. Asquith, in a statement in the house of commons today that he did not believe it would last so long as was originally expected, struck rather a cheerful note. While some continue to believe that the war will be one of years there is an increasing number who think that the great offensive campaign by the allies in the spring, when England's new army of a million men can take the field and Russia and France will be stronger than ever, will bring the conflict to an end, exhaustion also playing its part.

IMPROVEMENT CONTINUES IN THE FINANCIAL CONDITION

Sentiment Regarding Steel Trade Conditions Is More Cheerful.

New York, Nov. 11.—Cumulative evidence of continued improvement in the financial situation was again forthcoming today. This was seen in the removal of virtually all restrictions against dealings in unlisted securities, official intimation of an early re-opening of the cotton exchange, and the unanimous vote of the Clearing House association on the question of reducing reserve requirements from 25 to 18 per cent. in accordance with the provisions of the federal reserve law which becomes effective at the beginning of next week.

Apart from another decline in exchange on Germany, which was reflected in a lower quotation for marks, the market for various forms of foreign remittance was without material change. Sterling cables were higher at the outset but receded later in the day.

The outcome of the recent naval engagement in the Indian ocean found response in record breaking shipments of cotton as well as another reduction in marine insurance rates.

Sentiment regarding steel trade conditions was more cheerful although little new buying was reported. The increasing balance and easier money, it was pointed out, were potent factors in dispelling much of the depression which has so long prevailed in this industry.

There were reports of better foreign demand for copper metal, but this had no effect on quoted prices, which were unchanged from the low figures of the preceding month.

Call money was a trifle firmer but enormous loans were made at 5 1/2 per cent.

KING VICTOR EMANUEL REVIEWS HIS TROOPS

Observes Anniversary of His Birth in Usual Manner.

Rome, Nov. 12.—This being the anniversary of the birth of King Victor Emmanuel, his majesty, as usual observed the occasion by a review of the troops. There was a great demonstration by the public, which, since the opening of hostilities, has not failed to take advantage of every opportunity to greet the soldiers with a patriotic outburst.

The regular anniversary dinner was given by the foreign minister, Baron Sidney Sonnino to the diplomatic corps. The minister was confronted with some difficulties but was able to avoid unpleasant incidents between the representatives of the belligerent countries. The French ambassador Camille Barrere, was not present, owing to an indisposition and the British Ambassador Sir J. Rennell Rodd absented himself because of the court mourning for Prince Maurice of Battenberg.

The foreign minister for the first time at these dinners, included the women of the diplomatic corps among the guests.

PRESIDENT SPEAKS AT UNVEILING OF STATUE

Statue to General Philip Kearney Is Unveiled at Arlington National Cemetery.

Washington, Nov. 11.—President Wilson, speaking today at the unveiling of a statue to General Philip Kearney at Arlington National cemetery declared that there is nothing noble or admirable in war in itself but there is something very noble and admirable, occasionally, in the causes for which war is undertaken and there is something very noble and admirable in some of the characters which war develops.

"If a man's character can go through the fire and come out resplendent," said the president, "then you know that it is of the true quality of the best human stuff."

Mr. Wilson said General Kearney typified the best kind of leader produced by the United States adding that "there has been many another man who stood along side of him with the same qualities and the same distinction of service."

"The government of a great people," he added, "can always count upon great services; and the beauty of our government, the pride that we feel in it, is that it is a government of a great people, prodigal in their gifts of service, always ready to provide those things which elevate a nation in the annals of mankind."

Speaking of the habit of General Kearney's soldiers of affectionately calling him "Phil" the president said he had always been sorry he did not have a front name which admitted of shortening.

WILSON CONSIDERS EVACUATION OF CITY

PRESIDENT WILL AWAIT FURTHER MEXICAN ADVICES

WHILE IT IS BELIEVED PRESIDENT WILL ORDER EVACUATION OF VERA CRUZ, HE MAY WAIT FEW DAYS FOR ALIGNMENT OF MEXICAN CHIEFS—VILLA AND CARRANZA DECLARE WAR.

BULLETIN.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 11.—War has been declared between the Carranza and Villa elements of the constitutional army according to advices received at Juarez tonight from officials of the consulate of chiefs at Aguas Calientes. A preliminary battle already has occurred at Leon between the convention city and Querataro, it was reported.

General Pablo Gonzales, the Carranza commander has moved his forces from Querataro north to Silo to meet the Villa advance. General Manuel Chao, a Villa chieftain, departed today from Aguas Calientes with a strong column.

A message from official sources in Mexico City given out today by Rafael Musquiz, the Carranza consul general to the United States says:

"The first chief is at Cordoba. A majority of the principal chiefs have declared in favor of Carranza. Villa has called on the people to take arms. All the south and east is loyal to the first chief."

Washington, Nov. 11.—President Wilson and Secretary Bryan discussed for nearly three hours tonight the question of evacuation of Vera Cruz by the American forces. No announcement was made at the conclusion of the conference but it was understood the president decided to await further advice tomorrow as to the political situation in Mexico.

The decrees issued by General Carranza granting all the requests of the American government were carefully considered. Carranza granted amnesty to the Mexicans who served the American government during its occupation and ordered that taxes or customs paid to the American officers be not reimposed. Inasmuch as the nation at Aguas Calientes ordered Carranza to comply with the wishes of the American government, in connection with these guarantees, the Washington government was confronted with the fact that its demands were acquiesced in by all factions in Mexico.

Will Wait a Few Days.

In official circles generally, it was believed that while the president would order the evacuation, he might wait a few days for a definite alignment of the various chiefs in the latest civil war. The American government is on record in diplomatic correspondence as promising the withdrawal of the troops when the guarantees it requested were complied with and persons conversant with the president's point of view believe as soon as possible. It has been pointed out that the American garrison might be placed in an embarrassing situation if the forces controlled by Carranza and those of the convention, carried on their conflict near the city of Vera Cruz, as the Washington government is desirous of maintaining its absolute neutrality as between the two factions.

It was suggested after tonight's conference that the Washington government might await some formal expression from the convention at Aguas Calientes, as well as from General Eulalio Gutierrez, who has been selected as provisional president before withdrawing the American troops. General agents that as American consular agents that as soon as he was sworn in he would issue a proclamation covering the points desired by the United States.

As Gutierrez was to have taken the oath at the convention last night, tomorrow's despatches may bring word that he too, has complied with the demands of the United States.

The political situation in Mexico had not cleared according to the latest official advices. General Carranza asked the convention for an extension of fifteen days to discuss the question of a successor to whom he would deliver the executive power but the request was denied.

Generals Exchange Views.

Mexico City, Nov. 11.—In a last effort to maintain peace General Venustiano Carranza and General Eulalio Gutierrez who recently was elected provisional president of Mexico by the Aguas Calientes peace convention exchanged views by telegraph last night. The full text of the message was made public today.

General Gutierrez informs Gen. Carranza that he will hold power indefinitely, disregarding the stipulation limiting his tenure of office to twenty days unless the convention orders otherwise. He calls on General Carranza to resign in the interest of unity and peace, saying that Carranza is using the tool of Gen. Villa and asks General Gutierrez to meet him at a place to be agreed upon to discuss the question.

The attacks being made by followers of Zapata on the outskirts of the city are growing in intensity but the constitutional forces are repulsing them.

PEOPLE LEAVE VERDUN.

London, Nov. 11.—According to German reports the greater part of the population has left Verdun, says a Central News despatch from Amsterdam. "The French, it is stated, have mounted most of the great guns of the fortress on carriages to compensate for the field army's lack of artillery."

War News Summarized

Once again the armies struggling for mastery in the east territory along the North Sea are the object of the intensest interest in this region that the Germans are concentrating their great forces with the object of smashing through the allied lines to reach the French ports on the English channel.

Already the Germans have gained an important strategic point in the recapture of Dixmude. Their latest official announcement is of an extremely optimistic nature from the German standpoint. They report good progress around Ypres, the taking of Dixmude with 500 prisoners, the capture of the first line of the allied position west of Langemarck with two thousand prisoners, the repulse of fierce counter-attacks by the British and the holding of the heights to the north of Armentieres and a further advance to the southwest of Lille.

In comparison the French official statement is meagre. It confines itself to the mere announcement that the Germans have continued their efforts without achieving any new results.

The British parliament has been assembled to take whatever steps are needed as the speech from the throne put it, for "the prosecution to a victorious issue" of the war.

Premier Asquith in his speech at the opening of the parliament, declared that he doubted whether the war would last as long as had been originally predicted but that it would last long was certain.

The premier announced that the chancellor of the exchequer would lay before the house on Monday next proposals including the question of a loan for which the government is going to ask authority. He said further that there would be a vote of credit of considerable dimensions and a vote for additional men.

King George, in his speech asserted that in conjunction with the allies he had striven to preserve a friendly attitude towards Turkey but that "bad counsels and alien influence had driven her into a policy of wanton and defiant aggression," he expressed appreciation for the proofs which his Mussulman subjects "have hastened to give of their loyal devotion and support."

In east Prussia, Poland and Galicia, the Russians apparently are making progress. Vienna admits that the Austrian troops have evacuated central Galicia, although it is explained that this movement has been a voluntary one. The Austrians however, claim favorable results in the engagements between November 6 and 10 when they captured 4,300 Russians and many guns.

The British torpedo gunboat Niger has been added to the list of those sunk by German submarines. The Niger was torpedoed in the Downs and foundered but all her officers and crew were saved.

CANDIDATE RECEIVED, PROMISED, EXPENDED, AND GOT—NOTHING

Massachusetts Candidate for Congress on Republican Ticket Files Brief Report.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Charles H. Robertson of Roxbury, Mass., who ran for congress in his district on the Republican ticket, filed his report at the capital today. It said: "I received nothing, promised nothing, expended nothing, got nothing."

Richard Olney, 2nd district of Boston, who was elected to the house, filed a statement showing that he received contributions of $123 and spent $1,048 in his campaign.

Many of the campaign reports have been coming in irregularly and in poor shape. Some of the candidates failed to swear to their statements.

ANOTHER RELIEF SHIP.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Arrangements were completed at the American Red Cross headquarters today for the sailing of another Belgian relief ship—the Norwegian Steamer Thelma which as the result of a Philadelphia newspaper campaign is about to start from Philadelphia with 2,000 tons of food supplies consigned to American Minister Van Dyke in Holland. The newspaper committee informed the Red Cross officials that they might have enough money to send another ship in the near future.

PEOPLE LEAVE VERDUN.

London, Nov. 11.—According to German reports the greater part of the population has left Verdun, says a Central News despatch from Amsterdam. "The French, it is stated, have mounted most of the great guns of the fortress on carriages to compensate for the field army's lack of artillery."

He never will resign until he is assured that he can turn over the power to some stable government. He warns Gen. Gutierrez that the latter is being used as the tool of Gen. Villa and asks General Gutierrez to meet him at a place to be agreed upon to discuss the question.

The attacks being made by followers of Zapata on the outskirts of the city are growing in intensity but the constitutional forces are repulsing them.

SALEONS ORDERED CLOSED.

Benidj, Minn., Nov. 11.—Two hundred saloons within the district covered by the Indian treaty of 1855, were ordered closed tonight in compliance with a decision of the United States supreme court handed down last June, according to a report received here. The treaty covers a vast district in northern Minnesota.

QUARANTINE IS PARTIALLY LIFTED

BAN REMOVED FROM TWO PACKING COMPANIES

REPORT FROM NILES, MICH., CLAIM AUTHORITIES AT WASHINGTON MADE WRONG DIAGNOSIS OF CATTLE DISEASE—QUARANTINE PARTIALLY LIFTED AT PEORIA.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Quarantine against two packing companies because of the foot and mouth disease was lifted today and progress towards removing the ban on other concerns was reported despite the fact that 41 new cases of the disease were found among prize dairy cattle impounded at the Union Stock Yards.

The firms relieved of the quarantine were the Omaha Packing company, which has a plant outside the infected area, and the East St. Louis Packing company, with a plant in East St. Louis, which the state board of livestock commissioners today declared free of the contagion. The East St. Louis yards may re-open soon but the Omaha Packing company announced that they would not resume business until the other Chicago firms were freed of restriction.

It was charged today before the livestock commissioners that the carcasses of 100 hogs held in the cooler of a serum company at the time that foot and mouth disease germs were found in hog cholera serum were passed by city inspector and sold as food in Chicago. It was asserted that this involved no danger to human beings unless the meat were eaten raw, as cooking destroys the germs.

Made Wrong Diagnosis.

A report from Niles, Mich., where foot and mouth disease in the present epidemic is said to have originated, says that a wrong diagnosis of the first case by the bureau of animal industry at Washington in September kept government action to control the contagion in abeyance for nearly three weeks.

After an investigation it found that the first indication of the disease was discovered by Dr. W. L. Graham on August 23. Virus from the diseased animals was sent to the federal bureau of animal industry at Washington on September 18. Dr. Duggan, Michigan state veterinarian, said that the government experts diagnosed the infected as myxotic stomatitis and nothing was done to conquer the scourge until October 10, when another diagnosis by August Eichen of the Bureau of animal industry identified the ailment as foot and mouth disease.

Peoria, Nov. 11.—The quarantine in the Peoria stock yards was partially lifted tonight when Vice-President Meister was advised that the yards could be opened tomorrow morning for the shipment of cattle for slaughter. The work of disinfecting was completed and federal officials at once left for Pekin to examine cattle at the Globe and American distilleries. Twenty-four hundred head of cattle at the Globe distillery were given a clean bill of health late today. The work of inspecting 2,500 head of cattle at the American Distillery will begin tomorrow morning.

DEKOUNCE UNFAIR TREATMENT OF FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

Western Governors Assert Western States Should be Allowed to Develop Resources Without Interference from Washington.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 11.—Western governors today before the governors conference denounced what they called unfair treatment of public land states by the federal government. Elias A. Ammons of Colorado, Joseph M. Carey of Wyoming and A. O. Eberhart of Minnesota, seconded the plea of William Spry of Utah that the western states be allowed to develop their resources without interference from Washington.

Governor Ammons of Colorado, charged that the federal reclamation service under the last three presidents had disobeyed the orders of the nations chief executive in refusing to allow Colorado to use public lands for building a reservoir. He charged that magazines had printed conservation articles full of mis-statements and had refused to publish the other side of the question. Some of these magazine writers, the governor declared had distorted facts. Among other things they had asserted that Rockefeller owned all the coal land in Colorado, whereas, he owned only 800 acres out of 472,000 acres of coal land under lease by the state.

Governor Carey condemned the government's policy of withdrawing coal and mineral lands because such action tended to retard development many years. He said that federal attempts to improve such lands were wasteful.

Saloonkeepers in Benidj, Minn., Nov. 11.—Two hundred saloons within the district covered by the Indian treaty of 1855, were ordered closed tonight in compliance with a decision of the United States supreme court handed down last June, according to a report received here. The treaty covers a vast district in northern Minnesota.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS AFTER INCOME TAX DODGERS

Laying Ground Work for National- Wide Campaign for Detection of Dodgers.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Officials of the treasury department are seeking to lay the ground work for vigorous and nationwide campaign for the detection of income tax dodgers and the collection of unpaid taxes which some authorities believe may amount into millions.

The effort is directed partially against persons who are stockholders and drawers of dividends of the corporations of the country. There are more than 300,000 corporations doing business in the United States according to returns from the corporation excise law and if any plan adopted to institute a thorough search of their lists of shareholders and the records of their dividends it will be most exhaustive and may take years. For the present no such plan is likely to be adopted, however, and it is understood to be the hope of officials that the corporations will furnish this information upon request.

There is some question as to the power of the department to make corporations furnish this information but it has been an unofficial view that in case of refusal the law gives sufficient authority for the sending of internal revenue agents to make examinations. Since the first returns from the income tax were tallied there has been no concealment of the fact that treasury officials were disappointed. The tax collected fell many millions below what was expected. The estimates of taxable individuals on which congress framed the law were far in variance from the figures returned by internal revenue collectors. The difference between the returns and estimates was over the 100,000 mark. This was not taken to mean that there were actually more taxpayers in the country who had evaded the law but allowing for a wide margin of miscalculation, officials are inclined to credit the belief that there must be many cases of unpaid taxes.

Under the law, the normal tax of one per cent is withheld by the corporations themselves on such payments as dividends. Probably there has been virtually no violation of the law in this quarter, for the corporate dividends of corporations are facts already accessible to the internal revenue bureau. The failures to pay are assumed therefore to be among the class of taxpayers whose incomes are subject to the surtax on more than $20,000 annually.

N. Y. BOARD AGAIN GOES ON RECORD AGAINST TEACHER-MOTHERS

Decides Charges of Neglect of Duty Should be Preferred Against Teacher Who Was Absent to Receive the Stork.

New York, Nov. 11.—The New York board of education tonight again went on record against "teacher-mothers."

It not only refused to grant Mrs. Lora M. Wagner, a high school teacher, a leave of absence until September 10, 1915, to receive the stork but decided also that charges of neglect of duty should be preferred against her.

Action came up on the report of the committee on high schools which would have granted Mrs. Wagner absence "without pay." The report was defeated 23 to 8.

A resolution to amend the board's rules to permit women principals and teachers leaves of absence to bear and rear children was introduced but action on it was deferred to another meeting. A committee was named to consider the board's future policy regarding "teacher-mothers."

BRITISH TORPEDO GUNBOAT VICTIM OF GERMAN SUBMARINE

Gunboat Niger Is Torpedoed Wednesday Morning north of Straits of Dover.

London, Nov. 12.—The little British gunboat Niger, which was built twenty-two years ago and has been used as a tender, is the latest victim of a German submarine. She was torpedoed yesterday morning in the Downs north of the Straits of Dover and foundered immediately. The officers and crew were saved.

The admiralty in announcing the loss of the ship says:

"The Niger, Lieutenant Commander Arthur T. Muir, was torpedoed this morning (November 11) in the Downs. All the officers and 77 of the crew were saved.

"Four men were injured. It is thought that there was no loss of life.

"The Niger has been employed in semi-combat duties."

Boat Goes Down Quickly.

London, Nov. 12, 2:05 a. m.—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co. from Deal says: "The Niger was sunk off Deal Pier. An explosion was heard and the vessel disappeared within 15 minutes. Boats immediately went out to search for the crew, one reaching the spot in time to rescue forty men while the Niger was sinking. Other boats rescued the remainder of the crew and landed them on Deal Beach."

DEFINES SCOPE OF BANKS' OPERATIONS

FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD ISSUES CIRCULAR

BOARD GIVES LONG EXPECTED DEFINITION OF COMMERCIAL PAPER—RATE OF RE-DISCOUNTS NOT ANNOUNCED—PREFERS DOUBLE NAME COMMERCIAL PAPER.

Washington, Nov. 11.—The scope of the operations of the twelve federal reserve banks, to be opened for business next Monday was defined for the first few months of their existence in a circular issued today by the federal reserve board. For the present the banks will not exercise all the functions given them by congress. The board, concurring with the directors and governors of the twelve banks in recent conference here indorsed this plan of operations:

Acceptance of deposits of reserves from member banks.

Discount of bills of exchange and commercial paper.

Acceptance of deposits of checks drawn by member banks on any reserve bank or member bank in a reserve or central reserve city within their federal reserve districts.

Other powers may be called into play as the establishment of safe and efficient organization permits. In its circular the board gave the long expected definition of commercial paper, which is to be the life blood of the new system, the basis for the new federal reserve currency and the means by which the nation's circulating medium is expected to meet the expansions and contractions of trade and industry.

Rate Is Not Announced.

The rate of re-discount was not announced. This step probably will not be taken until Monday. The rate will not be uniform in all the banks.

The definition of commercial paper is broad and relies to a large degree upon the language of the currency act. The board declined at the present time to discuss the question of double and single name commercial paper. It did make it exceedingly clear, however, that it had a preference for the two name sort and left no room for the authorities of the banks to doubt that it expected careful inquiry into one name paper presented to them for re-discount.

The circular said:

"The functions of the federal reserve banks is of a two fold character. They should extend credit facilities particularly where the normal conditions now prevailing have created emergencies demanding prompt accommodations and on the other hand they must protect the gold holdings of this country in order that such holdings may remain adequate to meet demands that may be made upon them. While credit facilities should be liberally extended in some parts of the country it would appear advisable to proceed with caution in districts not in need of immediate relief and to await the effect of the release of reserves and of the changes which the credit mechanism of the country is about to experience before establishing a definite discount policy."

"While the most acute stage of the recent financial emergency appears to have passed, the conditions in other countries make it necessary that the United States should, to the utmost degree of efficiency organize and make available its own resources in order that it may provide for its own needs and replace facilities suddenly destroyed by the closing of so many of the accustomed channels of credit and trade."

Announces Basic Principles.

In defining commercial paper the board announced certain basic principles. In brief they are:

"That no bill shall be admitted to re-discount which have been or are to be applied to a permanent investment. Maturities of discounted bills the board holds should be well distributed so that a reserve bank should be in a position to liquidate one third of all its investments within thirty days. Bills presented for re-discount should be essentially self liquidating which the board explained, means that they should represent some distinct step in the productive or distributive process and be of such character that it is reasonably sure that they can be collected at maturity."

CH/ RLES DOWD DIED AT EARLY HOUR WEDNESDAY MORNING

Deceased Was One of the Best Known Residents and Had Lived Here More Than Half a Century.

Death came at 4:30 o'clock Wednesday morning to Charles Dowd after a long and useful life. Mr. Dowd was sick only one day, although he had not been in his usual health for a week and death was the result of senile pneumonia. For fifty-eight years the deceased had lived in this city and so he was familiar with the greater part of Jacksonville history and was actively identified with it.

Mr. Dowd was born in County Limerick, Ireland, Aug. 23, 1825, and so had lived for more than eighty-nine years and two months. While still a young man he came to America and settled in Quebec where he followed his trade as a decorative molder, sculptor and mason. After a residence of several years in Quebec he came to LaSalle, Ill., and afterward located in St. Louis where he was married January 18, 1853 to Miss Mary Kenschla.

Three years later on account of the poor health of their child Mr. and Mrs. Dowd decided to move from St. Louis and they came to Jacksonville which was their home ever afterward. Mrs. Dowd passed away June 3, 1911. Eleven children were born to them, five of whom preceded their father in death. The deceased were Charles, Stacia, Henry, Clotilda and Ignatius.

The surviving children are: Mrs. Anna Edson of Jacksonville; Mrs. Mary Ellen Green, who resided with her father; Mrs. John Noonan of Jacksonville, and Miss Bitilda E. Dowd, who also resided at home; Isabelle Dowd, who is now Sister Mary Ignatia, and Cora Felita Dowd, who is Sister Agnes, the two latter being Dominican sisters at Springfield. Mr. Dowd also is survived by one grandson, Alvin Edson, of Beardstown.

Mr. Dowd had been from his childhood up a member of the Catholic church and he was faithful in all the varied relations of life, a man who was warmly esteemed by the many who knew him through the years. He was long the senior member of the firm of Dowd & Sons and was an especially skilled workman. His unusual ability in his line and his business acumen gave him more than the usual measure of success and he leaves a considerable estate. Although he had been retired from active business life for a great many years the decorative and structural work of a number of older buildings give testimony of his skill. This is true especially at the state institutions.

Mr. Dowd had been so long a resident of the city that he had seen many changes and he was fond of talking about the doings of other days. Jacksonville has lost a valued citizen by his death and he will be sincerely mourned by a large number of friends.

The funeral will be held Saturday morning at nine o'clock at the church of Our Savior and interment will be in Cavalry cemetery.

ILLINOIS CLUB WOMEN WILL ELECT OFFICERS TODAY.

Rev. Myron L. Pontius Addresses Meeting Wednesday Evening, Giving "The Challenge of the New Age"—Calls Attention to Social Problems—The Program Today.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 11.—Mrs. Howard T. Wilson of Virden, and Mrs. Charles H. Zimmerman, Austia, were today nominated for president of the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs in session here. The election takes place tomorrow. Mrs. Frederick W. Dow, Chicago, was nominated without opposition for general federation state secretary and Mrs. George T. Palmer, Springfield, for corresponding secretary.

The report of the resolutions committee made today will come up for adoption tomorrow. Among other recommendations the association urges Governor Dunne to name women to vacancies which occur next year on the state board of administration and the state civil service commission. A constitutional convention, full woman suffrage, censorship of moving pictures means of securing work for unemployed in the state and peace in Europe are other matters urged in the resolutions.

The evening address Wednesday was given by the Rev. Myron L. Pontius, pastor of Central Christian church, Jacksonville. His topic was "The Challenge of the New Age", and in the course of his talk he mentioned the various social problems which face the world today. He emphasized especially the child labor problem and spoke of the part to be played by women's organizations in the cause of social reform.

Among the other speakers Wednesday was Judge Hugo Pam of Chicago. He spoke on "The Cornerstone of Democracy—The People's Club House", giving an interesting address on the social center.

This forenoon Mrs. Anna May Price, secretary of the Illinois Library extension commission, will speak on the subject, "Suggestions for Co-operation Between Women's Clubs and the State and Library Extension Commission." John D. Hunter of Chicago, chief probation officer of the juvenile court, will speak on "The Delinquent Girl." Senator Hugh S. Magill will speak this afternoon on "The Woman in the Legislature."

The address of Rev. Mr. Pontius before the Federation follows in part:

The Challenge of the New Age.
We are entering the dawn of a new age. If you doubt the truth of this statement go with me back to the dawn of history. Study the ideals, the environment of man as you follow him down through the successive steps of the centuries, then I am sure you will agree when I say we are entering the dawn of a new age.

In this new age we are thinking not in groups, but as individuals. The group conscience is being replaced by the individual conscience. We recognize the fact that life expresses itself normally in a series of relationships. The relation of the individual to his environment; the relation of the individual to other individuals; and the relation of the individual to God. And we do not forget that genuine altruistic service is the fixed star guiding the individual through the harbor of life across the ocean of time into the presence of God.

In the new age we recognize that the individual is supreme. The individual is greater than the temple which he builds. The individual is grander than the oratories and symphonies which he arranges. The individual is mightier than the literature which he calls into existence. The individual is vaster than the civilization which he establishes. Yes we believe that the individual is supreme.

A Brighter Day.
The nineteenth century clearly stated the problem; the twentieth century is finding the solution. The nineteenth century laid the foundation for a greater and better civilization; the twentieth century is rearing the superstructure. The nineteenth century produced the prophet who called attention to the existing social, industrial and political injustices; the twentieth century is producing the priest who will make a permanent atonement by establishing a new social, industrial and political order.

The nineteenth century with its discoveries and explorations, its inventions and achievements, has made the world a neighborhood; the twentieth century with its altruistic and philanthropic service is making the world a brotherhood. We are forced to believe that out of the present conflict and disorder there will come forth a brighter and better day for the human race.

Challenges the Intellect.
The new age asks the individual to use the best gifts of his mind to make brighter and better the way of human pilgrimage. The saddest walk in human experience is the walk among the fancied tombs of dead minds; minds dwarfed by selfishness; minds neglected until they perished and oblivion has shrouded them for her own. The culture that holds itself aloof from suffering humanity is spurious.

"We live in deeds, not in years; in thoughts, not in breaths; in feelings, not in figures on the dial. He most lives who thinks most, feels the noblest and acts the best."

Our Moral Stamina.
You cannot build a firm, stable structure upon an insecure, uncertain foundation, and you cannot build character and a successful life upon questionable morals. Be aware of the individual who laughs at moral sentiment as a mere conventional line that may be crossed and re-crossed without any consciousness of transition. When we give the individual cultural knowledge only, failing to give that which generates moral stamina in his life, he cannot attain to the highest and best. He is apt to become a menace, rather than a benefit to society. Better train the girl to be pure, rather than endeavor to redeem the fallen woman. Better train the boy to be honest than to cure the thief. It is better to cleanse the spring than to filter the water of the stream.

Our Social Order.
We hear a great deal today about the social problems. What is a social problem? We are told that when the social ideas and ideals of a community are uniform there is no dispute, there are no social problems. When the people of a given community all agree there is none to ask a social question, but when even a minority believe the people are moving in the wrong direction or too slowly in the right direction, you have a real live social question.

The new age challenges the social order so far as the dispensing our charity is concerned. Many mistakes have been made because the society has not worked through competent and well informed committee. However my experience and observation cause me to believe that it requires the mind of a statesman and the heart of a savior to be able to distribute a charity fund so as not to pauperize the family and injure society.

The new age challenges us in our attitude toward the child labor problem. The child is to be the future citizen exercising all the privileges and bearing all the responsibilities of citizenship. The child has inalienable rights and when we deprive him of these rights by keeping him in a factory or store where the hours are long, the sanitary conditions bad and the wages scarcely equivalent to the bare necessities of life, we should not be surprised to find his mind a hot bed of socialism, infidelity and anarchy. The new age challenges our better selves to put forth our best effort to change those social and industrial conditions so that every child under the stars and stripes shall have the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Challenges to Civic Conscience.
A brighter and better day is about to dawn because the civic conscience in this country is being stirred as never before. In this country the people from the government and when the government, municipal, county, state, or national is not what it should be the people are to blame. When the law is not enforced I do not blame the officers more than I blame the citizen for the sentiment of the people is always back of the officers of the law whether it means lax or rigid law enforcement. It is imperative that we have an aroused and quickened civic conscience on every subject pertaining to social betterment, that every public official shall consider his office a public trust; and that there shall be equal rights for all and special privileges for none.

This condition will come through the intelligent exercise of the right of franchise; the creation of public sentiment against every civic wrong; and the rigid enforcement of law.

The clubs represented by this Federation are doing most excellent service in meeting these challenges of the new age. This is indicated by the fact that aside from the committees on art, music, literature, etc. (and these are essential) there are committees on education, industry, civics, reform, philanthropy, etc., which indicate that these clubs are actively participating in the great work of social and economic reconstruction.

FIRE DAMAGES ALTON BRIDGE NEAR YEOMAN ON AIR LINE

Blaze Weakens Structure, Making it Unsafe for Traffic—Route Trains Via This City.

A Chicago & Alton trestle, three and one-half miles east of Yeoman on the air line, was damaged by fire Wednesday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock. The flames weakened the structure so much that it was deemed unsafe for traffic and the trains were routed through this city.

The fire is supposed to have caught from burning leaves on the right-of-way. A short time after the fire was extinguished a force of section men were at work on it and a gang of bridge men was sent to repair the damage. The fire blocked a stock train of fifty cars which was running on short time. Since the embargo on cattle, they cannot be shipped through the state excepting under a government seal, and this train was being rushed to its destination. The train had to be sent from Murrayville to this city and on through Bloomington. The through passenger trains running through Springfield and south via the air line, were also routed through this city Wednesday night.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Miss Estelle Schofield entertained a number of friends at her home, 910 South Clay avenue, Friday evening, the occasion being her eighteenth birthday. Games and music were enjoyed and the house was prettily decorated with cut flowers. During the evening refreshments, consisting of oysters, brick ice cream and cake were served. Miss Mabel Schofield assisted in entertaining.

A delightful time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Henderson, 673 East State street, Wednesday, the occasion being in honor of their birthdays, which fell respectively on the 13th and 6th. A fine turkey dinner was served, with all the other tempting viands and it is needless to say that the meal was greatly enjoyed. ENGLISH MILITANT ADDRESSES SOUTHERN SUFFRAGETTE MEETING

Miss Pankhurst Rouses Session to Enthusiastic Demonstration.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Nov. 11.—Citing the European war as "an instance of the danger and injustice of depriving women of the ballot," Miss Christabel Pankhurst, the English militant suffragette, aroused the closing session of the Southern State Suffrage Conference to an enthusiastic demonstration here tonight.

"But not withstanding the suffragettes' differences with the men's government in England," said the speaker, "the women now are concentrating their efforts to helping their country in its time of trial and peril."

At its closing business session earlier in the day, the conference elected Miss Kate M. Gordon, of New Orleans, president and Miss Laura Clay of Kentucky, vice president at large and allowed to die in committee a declaration of principles.

"Women are taking an increasing interest in international affairs," Miss Pankhurst told the conference. "The time has passed when men had a monopoly in understanding international questions. The European war is an instance. Woman's experience in the present conflict shows it is neither right nor just to deprive them of the vote, because they have to bear the hardships of a war which they had no part in bringing on and which they have no power to avert."

"Woman suffrage now is an established principle so far as the United States is concerned. With the western half of the country's territory already under the suffrage banner, it is impossible for any force to prevent the cause spreading throughout the entire country."

Many of the delegates to the conference left tonight for Nashville, to attend the annual convention of the National American Woman Suffrage association.

BOMB EXPLODED AT BRONX COURT HOUSE

Is Intended for Judge Who Has Been Severe on Foreign "White Slavers."

New York, Nov. 11.—A bomb was exploded along side the Bronx county court house late tonight doing much damage to the building. The shock of the explosion was felt blocks away.

It is the belief of the police that the bomb was intended for county Judge Louis D. Gibbs, who has presided recently in the cases of a number of foreigners convicted on "white slave" charges. This opinion was also expressed by Judge Gibbs, who at the time of the explosion was preparing to leave his chambers in the building in company with his private secretary, Samuel Phillips.

The judge was shaken up by the concussion but escaped injury. Similarly fortunate was John Connolly, a watchman who was seated in the main hallway hardly ten feet from the bronze doors near which the bomb was exploded.

RECEIVED FROM ATHENS.

Paris, Nov. 12.—The following despatch has been received by the Havas Agency from Athens:

"It is announced that a British destroyer has captured two Turkish sailing ships near the Island of Tenedos.

"The town of Berat, Albania has been pillaged and completely destroyed. Anarchy reigns at Avlona, Albania, and that region is on the verge of civil war. Eshad Pasha sent 500 soldiers to Avlona and they disarmed the inhabitants and restored the Turkish flag."

IT ATTACKING PUEBLO.

Vera-Cruz, Nov. 11.—Higinio Aguilar, supported by General Benjamin Arguedo and a coadjutor of Zapata followers, is attacking Puebla 67 miles southeast of Mexico City, according to advices received here tonight. The attacking party already is in possession of the outskirts of the city. Constitutional soldiers sent from the capital to reinforce the Puebla garrison are resisting stubbornly.

TRIBUTE TO WILSON.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 11.—Charm Clark, who is on a speaking tour in Wisconsin, paid high tribute to President Wilson's foreign policy today.

"Chronicles of the future," he said, "in living President Wilson's place in history will overlook tariff reform and other accomplishments and give him a niche in the hall of fame for his love of peace. His Mexican policy will be his chief glory in the future."

NOTES FROM THE LABOR WORLD.

Federal ownership of the beef industry is favored by the California organized butchers.

Policemen as city lamp-lighters is the odd suggestion made in New York. How about the furnaces on the beat?

Ten thousand iron workers are said to be out of work in Milwaukee. Outlook is bright, however, for early resumption.

The New York state labor department has appointed Charles B. Barnes as director of the new employment bureau. Good job, $4,000 a year.

The electrical workers have a new schedule of wages at Quincy, Ill., to go into effect on Dec. 1.

Unions of Grand Rapids charge employers with an extensive spy system occasioned by the strike of the furniture workers.

Fred Fay, who led the successful strike of the Boston street car men, was recently arrested on a warrant sworn out by some secret enemy.

GEN. W. A. JONES, ENGINEER IN U.S. ARMY AND EXPLORER DIES TUESDAY

Mrs. R. S. Nelson, This City, Receives Word of Death of Brother in Washington, D. C., Hospital—Was Great Western Pathfinder.

William Albert Jones, brigadier general in the United States Army, died Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Walter Reed hospital at Washington, D. C., according to word received in the city by his sister, Mrs. R. S. Nelson, 903 West College avenue. Gen. Jones was an engineer of note and during the early days in the west won distinction as an explorer and discoverer. His career was at many points touched with romance and from the time of his graduation from West Point in 1864 until the beginning of his last illness, six weeks since, his life has been an active one, marked by constant endeavor and filled with useful achievement.

General Jones was in Jacksonville last June for a visit of three weeks with his sister and at that time expressed the intention of spending the winter here. His outdoor life was conducive to good health and he bore his seventy-three years lightly until stricken with paralysis a short time ago. Mrs. Nelson will not be able to attend the funeral which will be held Friday or Saturday in Arlington cemetery.

William A. Jones was born in St. Charles, Mo., June 26, 1841, the son of Stillman and Anne Jane (Perkins) Jones and came with his parents while yet an infant to Carrollton, Ill., where he was reared and received his preliminary education. Graduating with honors from the Prentiss academy at Carrollton, he received appointment to West Point Military Academy, graduating from that school in 1864. He was married at Chicago, Nov. 25, 1873, to Miss Louisa V. Test of Indianapolis and to this union there was born one daughter, Martha, wife of Capt. W. T. Bates, of the 27th infantry, U. S. Regular army.

A year's service in the war of the rebellion followed his term at West Point. He was made a captain of engineers March, 1867, and a major in 1882. He was made a brigadier general and retired by the operation of the law June 26, 1905. After his service in the war he returned to West Point where for a time he was professor of civil and military engineering, law and ethics. He saw his service in the 6th Corps, Army of the Potomac. An army exploring expedition to northwestern Wyoming and the Yellowstone park gave him opportunity of a new kind and in the course of the trip he discovered Two Ocean Pass, Tugwa Pass and the Shoshone Mountains and was the first white man to cross the great range of mountains east of the Yellowstone park. He served on the construction of harbors, fortifications and light houses on the Atlantic ocean and on the Great Lakes and did work on the improvement of rivers in the northwest. He was the owner and manager of a 2,000 acre oyster plantation on the eastern shore of Virginia and during the last few years had made his residence at Old Point Comfort.

Executive ability and mechanical skill were however, not his only accomplishments, for he was esteemed by his many friends as a just and upright man. He was kindly in disposition also and was known as an especial friend of young men. He was a member of the Protestant Episcopal church and was at all times a consistent Christian and a good citizen.

MEREDOSIA SCHOOLS CLOSED

BECAUSE OF SCARLET FEVER

Quarantine of Ten Days is Ordered at River Town as Means to Stamp Out Disease.

The public schools of Meredosia were closed last Monday and all public gatherings are dispensed with for a period of ten days, on account of an epidemic of scarlet fever in the town. There are two cases at present, one the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Berger and the other a son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Butcher. A child of Leonard Price died about two weeks ago, and the family of Edward Potter has been afflicted with the disease but they are all doing well now. Other children were exposed before the authorities knew the nature of the malady and the quarantine orders were issued as a means of stamping out the disease. The city authorities have also issued an order that no children under the age of 15 years, be allowed in the streets for ten days.

UNABLE TO COMMUNICATE WITH CRUISERS OFF COAST OF TURKEY

Daniels Asserts Navy Officials Feel No Anxiety Regarding Cruisers.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Efforts of the navy department to communicate with the Cruisers North Carolina and Tennessee off the coast of Turkey has been unsuccessful up to a late hour tonight. Secretary Daniels announced, however, that navy officials had dismissed any anxiety they may have felt over rumors circulated yesterday that one of the cruisers had struck a mine. He said that if such a thing had happened the department would have been informed of this in site of congested cables and other difficulties of communication.

PLANS FOR ALL-STAR GAME FALL THROUGH.

Michigan Authorities Find it Impossible to Prepare Team.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 11.—The plans for all star teams of Minnesota and Michigan to play a football game at Northrop Field on Thanksgiving Day for the benefit of the Belgian sufferers have fallen through. The Michigan authorities found it impossible to assemble and prepare a team in the short time available for preliminary recruiting and workout, it was said. Coach Yost telegraphed as follows:

"Regret that I cannot see how it is possible or practicable to secure a Michigan team for a football game at Minneapolis."

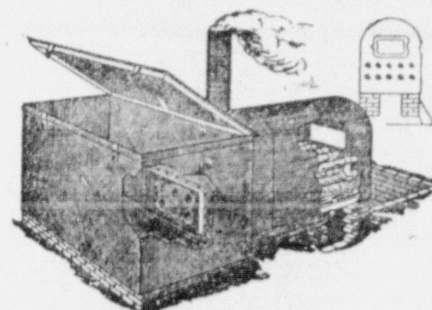

P. G. Bartleme, graduate manager of athletics to Michigan, wired: "Our board of control would have to pass on the matter and it would be out of the question for me alone to assume the responsibility in any way."

FIND NO TRACE OF BRITISH CRUISERS

Washington, Nov. 11.—Eduardo Suarez, Chilean ambassador here, was informed by his government today that Chilean ships sent out in search had not found the slightest trace of the Monmouth or the Good Hope, the British cruisers reported lost in a sea fight with a German fleet off the coast of Chile. They returned to Valparaiso, the vessels reported that they had searched carefully over the zone of battle without finding a bit of wreckage. Word had been sent to London, the message said, that the battle had taken place at a great distance outside Chilean territorial waters but as soon as Chile heard of the fight ships were sent out to reconnoiter and give any necessary help.

HOG FEEDERS

Pat. Applied for 100 bu. size.

We have at last discovered the best and healthiest hog feed. It is 1-2 corn and cob meal, 1-3 wheat and 1-6 oats cooked until 10 bushels will make 25 bushels in bulk, then draw off 25 gallons of syrup, and add 50 gallons of water and then add 25 gallons of ground wheat and oats to thicken the slop, feed it warm if possible. This will make 100 gallons of the best slop ever fed a hog.

Come and see 160 head I am feeding on 10 bushels of this mixture of dry grain per day and you surely will be convinced it is the only way to feed. They are running on my wheat stubble sown in colver, all eat regular and perfectly healthy. If I tell you what they are gaining you could not believe it, so come and see them, and you will say they are doing better than hogs fed twice the amount of dry grain.

Yours for producing more beef and pork.

ASQUITH SATISFIED WITH WAR'S PROGRESS

FIRST DESIGNS OF THE GERMAN EMPEROR HAVE BEEN DEFEATED.

Premier Asserts That the Longer the War Lasts the More Clearly the Allies Will Emerge From it Champions of Their Cause.

London, Nov. 11.—In a speech delivered in the house of commons today after the opening of parliament, Premier Asquith declared that he doubted whether the war would last as long as some people originally predicted but that it would last long was certain.

"However, the longer it lasts," continued the premier, "the more the great resources and strength which the empire possesses will be available to fill the gaps, to replace the losses and maintain our position. The empire is on trial and the experiences of the last three months have inspired us with the confident hope that the longer the war lasts the more clearly will be emerge from it as the champions of a just cause."

Mr. Asquith expressed warm appreciation of the support which the government had received from all parties.

"England is engaged in an unprecedented contest," he said, "and regarding the justice of her share in this there is no difference of opinion in any part of the empire. The country has gone through much, has learned much, has seen her troops hold a position of difficulty and danger," the premier continued and he added:

"Today we see them in a position in which, in conjunction with our allies, France and Belgium, they have frustrated absolutely and defeated the first designs of the German emperor."

Regarding the sending of British marines to Antwerp just before the fall of that city, the premier intimated that Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, subsequently would make a more detailed statement but he said at once that the responsibility for the expedition was shared by the government as a whole. Earl Kitchener, secretary of state for war, was consulted and everything was done with his knowledge and approval and the expedition was a material and most useful factor in the conduct of the campaign.

The premier pointed out that the number of men authorized by the three votes of the present year for the regular army—not territorial—was 1,186,000. Of that total all but 100,000 already are in the service of the crown. A committee of inquiry composed of all parties, will be appointed to consider allowances to those dependent upon soldiers. On Monday, next, said Mr. Asquith David Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer, will lay before the house of commons his financial proposals, including the question of a loan for which the government is going to ask the authority of the house on Tuesday. There will be a vote of credit of considerable dimension and an additional vote for men.

French Communication.
Paris, Nov. 11.—The following French official statement was issued tonight:

"The enemy has continued all day his efforts of yesterday without accomplishing any new result. He has directed against Lombardzyde a counter-attack which has been repulsed and has made vain attempts to debouch from Dixmude on the left bank of the Yser."

"There is nothing new to report from the rest of the front."

Announces Capture of Dixmude.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Despatches from the French foreign office to the embassy here today, duplicated the war office communication announcing the capture of Dixmude by the Germans and adding to this statement the fact that the French retired before superior numbers. The minister of foreign affairs also denied reports crediting the vicar general of Rheims with the admission that the cathedral towers had been used as observation points by the French military.

The telegram says: "German agencies are spreading the rumor that the towers of the cathedral were used for military purposes; as I indicated previously in recent communications this is false."

German Official Statement.

Mine Own.

My concertina sobs and shakes, for it's in poor repair, and neighbors say the noise it makes would cause a saint to swear. My neighbors come, on protest bent, when I on it perform; "Why don't you buy an instrument that's up to date," they storm. "Pianos now are in the reach of even the poorest man, and you might go and buy a peach on the installment plan. Pipe organs, too, on easy terms, are sold most everywhere, why play a thing that squeaks and squirms, and murders every air." "Because," I answer, "this mine own, all paid for, long ago; and though it has a beastly tone, that fills the town with woe, I'd rather hear its music sad, that keeps me in a sweat, than own the fairest, sweetest Strad, for which I'd gone in debt. I'd rather it should make me sore with discords, every day, than have collectors at the door demanding instant pay. The humble whistle, built of tin, by local plumber made, beats organs, flute or violin for which you haven't paid. My concertina seems a crime to folks like you, and yet, I find that music most sublime which doesn't hint of debt."

German official statement issued this afternoon is contained in a despatch from Berlin transmitted by the Marconi Wireless Co.:

"We have made good progress yesterday on the Yser branch of the Ypres and took Dixmude by storm capturing more than 500 prisoners and nine machine guns."

"Further south our troops crossed the canal and west of Lagmarc captured the first line of the enemy's position. About 2,000 infantry were taken prisoner and six machine guns were captured."

"South of Ypres we have driven the enemy out of St. Eloi. "Despite fierce counter-attacks by the British and dominating heights to the north of Armentieres remain in our hands."

"Our attack has made progress to the southeast of Lille. The French suffered heavy losses while attempting to recapture commanding heights to the north of Vienna-Le-Chateau in the forest of Argonne and to the northeast and south of Verdun. French attacks were everywhere repulsed."

"No important information is at hand from the eastern theatre of the war."

"It is officially reported from Vienna that heavy fighting at Shabats and Lesnitsa was continued through the night and some of the enemy's positions were taken storm. To the east of Kupanje the pursuit of the enemy is being continued."

"There are movements of strong Russian forces in East Galicia and in Bessarabia (a government of Southwestern Russia) this apparently being in connection with the Turkish war."

"General headquarters at Constantinople report that although snow is falling and in spite of a heavy atmosphere our offensive on the Caucasian frontier is maintained."

Will Support Government.

Speaking in the house of commons on the address in reply to the speech from the throne, A Bonar Law promised the government the unflinching support of the opposition in prosecuting the war. The opposition leader said:

"We stand in a better position now than at the outbreak of the war. The only chance for victory of Germany was that she would win before the resources of the Allies were available. She has failed on both fronts."

Bonar Law emphasized the importance of the financial position and said that already the economic efforts were being felt in Germany. This was shown by the rate of exchange and this would become more evident as time progressed. As soon as Germany realized that she must be beaten he declared economic forces would work with a pressure of which there was no conception.

The leader of the opposition wished to know why a British naval force went to Antwerp, why the First Lord of the admiralty, Winston Spencer Churchill, accompanied a military expedition instead of Field Marshall Earl Kitchener, Minister of War and something more about the naval disaster off the Chilean coast.

CONGREGATIONALISTS OF NEW ENGLAND MEET.

SUFFRAGISTS DON WAR PAINT.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 11.—Rumors of an impending battle in the convention of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, which opens here tomorrow, grow apace on the eve of the convention. The fight will center over the admission of the Congressional Union to membership, and the report of Mrs. Medill McCormack on the congressional situation will be the signal for hostilities, it is said today.

Hutchinson, Kas., Nov. 11.—The Kansas state County clerks association opened its convention here today, and at the same time the Kansas Good Roads Association met to discuss the programme for road improvements for the coming year.

SEEKING TO PREVENT DISEASES OF INFANTS

American Association Is Holding Conference at Boston to Study Prevention Methods.

Boston, Nov. 11.—The American Association for Study and Prevention of Infant Mortality is gathered here for its annual convention, and is planning an extension of the campaign against infant disease. The meeting will cover three days, and many prominent speakers are on the programme.

Dr. Hugh Cabot of Boston, an authority on sex hygiene, is urging the society to undertake a campaign for the prevention of infant morbidity. "When you consider that 25 per cent of our population today is in some way handicapped by preventable disease or injury, you can see how important it is to keep our babies from getting sick or crippled," said Dr. Cabot today. "I shall urge the appointment of a committee for the purpose. It seems to me the schools are the best places to do it in, next to the homes. School inspection is already being carried on to some extent. Something should be done to inspect the very small children at home."

"The association is the only nationwide body of medical and lay folk devoting itself exclusively to this great subject of the child's health," said Mrs. William Lowell Putnam, in discussing infant mortality. "Where many babies die, many more are ill, and these illnesses often leave their traces in weakened constitutions and crippled lives. That the human race is physically deteriorating there can be no doubt, in spite of our increased longevity. Although we have added about 15 years to the average span of life during the last half century, these years have not brought increased health, but quite the contrary. The amount of sickness is greater, and despite the reduction in the requirements for army recruits, as many as 600 out of every 1,000 applicants are regularly refused as physically unequal to the strain of army service."

DAUGHTERS OF CONFEDERACY WILL MEET IN SAVANNAH.

General Convention Brings Together Notable Gathering of Women.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 11.—The flower of southern womanhood was represented today by a record gathering of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, and from every city and town in the south, as well as from chapters in Mexico City and Boston, the fair delegates came with enthusiasm.

The annual general convention was opened this morning, with brilliant exercises, Governor Saxon and Mayor Davant welcoming the daughters to the city. The annual address of the president-general was heard, and the delegates listened to the reports from the various states.

The most interesting new feature of the convention was the "baby chapter", which sent from Boston an encouraging report of the work of the southern women in Boston for the correction of the famous "other monument" on Boston common, so that the credit for the actual discovery of the anaesthetic properties of ether would be accorded to a southern doctor, Crawford W. Long of Georgia. The Boston chapter expects to accomplish this, despite all opposition.

In addition to the regular convention, the daughters are celebrating the twentieth birthday of the organization. For it was in September, 1894, at Nashville, that the United Daughters was formed. From that little meeting, the ranks have grown until today there are 100,000 members, all actively interested in the great work which the southern women have undertaken. The accomplishments of the United Daughters is reviewed today with delight, not only by the members, but by all southerners.

The convention will occupy four days, and will consider a huge plan for work during the coming year. Many social affairs have been planned, and the first of these will be a reception tonight by the officers to the visiting delegates.

PHIL KEARNEY MONUMENT DEDICATED.

Washington, Nov. 11.—The monument erected to the memory of General Phil Kearney was dedicated in Arlington Cemetery today. A big delegation of Grand Army officials attended, and a special train brought representatives of the state and of the G. A. R. from New Jersey.

The arrangements were made by Charles F. Hopkins, chairman of the commission appointed by the governor of New Jersey to remove the remains to Washington and superintend the construction of the memorial.

The remains of General Kearney were interred in Trinity churchyard, New York, September 6, 1862, and were removed to Washington in April, 1912.

CHICAGO'S "CRIME TRUST" CASES.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 11.—Barney Ertsehe, on whom the state's attorney, Maclay Hoyne, pins his chances of reaching the alleged "crime trust" in which police officers are implicated with the crooks of the city, faces trial tomorrow on charges connected with the Rialto shooting. Nathan Spira, now in Joliet prison for arson, will also be tried. It is the announced intention of the state's attorney to get the three officers who are implicated to place on record their version of the sensational shooting affray, before exposing his evidence against the officers, who are to be tried later.

WOOLMEN GATHER AT SALT LAKE.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 11.—The annual meeting of the National Woolgrowers' Association, which meets tomorrow, has brought together many wool men from all parts of the country. President J. F. Hagonbarth, who was an early arrival, said: "It seems to me that a new era is opening before the sheep breeders, the benefit of which can be grasped only by united and concerted effort. We realize our opportunity, and all branches of the industry are getting together."

BRITISH PARLIAMENT CONVENES TODAY.

London, Nov. 11.—The opening of the war is the most important measure to come immediately before the British Parliament, which convened today. That the plan will provide for a long-drawn-out struggle, and extensive levies, is conceded by the members.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES

DARK, THICK, GLOSSY

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite
Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.—Adv.

FRENCH REMEDY AIDS
STOMACH SUFFERERS

France has been called the nation without stomach troubles. The French have for generations used a simple mixture of vegetable oils that relieve all stomach and intestinal ailments and keep the bowels free from foul, poisonous matter. The stomach is left to perform its functions normally.

Mr. Geo. H. Mayr, a leading druggist of Chicago, cured himself with this remedy in a short time. The demand is so great that he imports these oils from France and compounds them under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. People everywhere write and testify to the marvelous relief they have received using this remedy—one dose will rid the body of poisonous accretions that have accumulated for years and convince the most chronic sufferers from stomach, liver or intestinal troubles. Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy is now sold here by all druggists.—advertisement.

CHILDREN HATE OIL,

CALOMEL AND PILLS

"California Syrup of Figs" Best for Tender Stomach, Liver, Bowels.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs", which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—advertisement.

MORGAN COUNTY

PEOPLE IN CHICAGO

ANNUAL BANQUET HELD AT GRAND PACIFIC HOTEL.

Addresses Proved of Great Interest —Other Days In Jacksonville are Recalled—Mr. Montgomery Toastmaster.

(By J. M. Swales.)

As is well known by many of our readers there are quite a number of former residents of Jacksonville and Morgan county now residing in Chicago. Some years ago Mr. J. March Patterson and a few others conceived the idea of organizing an association and holding a meeting once a year and giving a banquet to the members. This fall the banquet took place at the Grand Pacific, and to say that it was an enjoyable affair is to draw it mild. It was a reminder of the days of "Auld Lang Syne" in all that the term implies, and proved to be "a feast of reason and a flow of soul" and an event long to be remembered by all who were so fortunate as to be present.

Your correspondent met old time residents of Jacksonville whom he had not seen for nearly a half century. This was especially the case as to Col. W. H. Edgar, whose father was Dr. Edgar, an old time practitioner of Jacksonville in antebellum days. After leaving Jacksonville Col. Edgar went to Jerseyville, where he founded the Jerseyville Republican, which he conducted successfully for several years. Let us forget it might be stated that he was not only an able and versatile writer but an accomplished musician as well. On the piano he played some of the melodies of the long ago which brought up sweet, sad memories of the days when some of these present were very much younger than they are today, of which the writer "was one of whom."

The addresses after the banquet were reminiscent of early Jacksonville and the great men of the historic old town, most of whom have long since been gathered to the bosom of their fathers. Among those mentioned were Prof. J. B. Turner, J. M. Sturtevant, Samuel Adams, and Newton Bateman as educators; the great war governor, Richard Yates, and others who became prominent as statesmen and soldiers in the days of the great civil conflict of the early sixties.

As president of the association Mr. Q. H. Chapin called upon Mr. Robert L. Montgomery to act as toastmaster, who filled the position in a most acceptable manner.

Mr. Chapin's Address.
I want to say to you in behalf of the committee who arranged for this evening that we have done the best we could and the Lord was on our side, for he provided for us just such a day as we would like to have had for this evening. I want to thank you individually for coming out in such goodly numbers. There are several who would have been with us but found it impossible to do so. I hope you have enjoyed the few we have provided here and that this may be but a forerunner of many occurrences of this kind. You will pardon me now for speaking particularly of the Morgan County society; we are very much disappointed that Mr. J. March Patterson could not be with us this evening on account of illness; perhaps he is not bedridden, but he is in poor health and could not attend this banquet. It is through his energy and perseverance that we have such a society and I want to thank the others who have worked so hard to get the names and addresses of the Morgan county people residing in Chicago. Chicago swallows us up in spite of all we can do, and we seem to forget sometimes where we started from, but I believe everyone really has a warm spot in his heart for Morgan county and all people who have ever lived in Jacksonville, or associate with people who come from Jacksonville, would like to become affiliated with our society, and I want everyone within sound of my voice this evening to appoint himself as a committee of one to secure the names of those who are not with us. We have about 400 names on the list. We can have grand times it seems to me; it is not for any purpose whatever to advance any interest or personal thing, but we might call it another love for old Morgan county. I dropped from there many years ago, although my gray hairs do not indicate age any more than a few on my right and a few on my left—some of whom have not seen as many years as myself. I thank you all again for your presence here and hope you have enjoyed it. Mr. Robert L. Montgomery, toastmaster.

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:
Toastmaster's Address.
I must admit that this is rather a peculiar position for me to occupy, as a toastmaster ordinarily is supposed to be full of jokes and somewhat of a showman for the evening. Now, I don't want to presume to occupy that capacity; if I were inclined to tell funny stories, perhaps it might be very entertaining, but I think our dispositions in that regard is largely influenced by our manner of life. If I can be considered in the sense of a sort of director for the evening and see, or endeavor to see, that the program that we have prepared is carried out in an ordinary, systematic manner, I hope I will have fulfilled my mission. We have many here whom I recall personally as having come from Jacksonville, Morgan county and vicinity—others whom I know through others—for instance, our worthy chairman, whose brother I was well acquainted with in Jacksonville—I speak of Captain Horace Chapin. I think when one gets away from home and home environments, he frequently has a feeling that he would like to return, if not in actual spirit, at least in thought that anyone, whatever his environments may be, even the vagabond who might be said to have no home, I believe that we all, irrespective of our social or financial condition, feel that home, as we have fixed it in our memories, is perhaps the sweetest place on earth. I know that my friends with whom I came in contact in school and my youthful days have had more of an influence on me than anything else and I think that perhaps is the same feeling that all possess.

The program this evening is one that has been gotten up without much preparation and the parties who will participate I know and trust they will be of interest to you. I think perhaps it would be appropriate to hear a song and we have with us tonight Mrs. Louise Short, whom many of you have doubtless heard sing and I present her.

The singing of Mrs. Short was one of the most pleasing features of the evening.
Mr. Chapin: Ladies and Gentlemen: When a man has reached mature years, with all due respect to the next speaker, he has passed through many experiences that perhaps it would be of vital value to us as individuals, the gentleman who will address you next is a man who lived in Jacksonville, Morgan county, many years ago; he knows of the early associations and friends and neighbors with whom he mingled at that time. When he remembers all those he has seen around him fall like leaves in wintry weather, he feels like one who "reads alone some banquet hall deserted." Col. W. H. Edgar, on the subject "Looking Backward."

A Glance Backward.
Col. Edgar spoke as follows:
In telling of some of the pranks at college, the boys had decided to take Prof. — carriage out north of town to Mauvaister creek, and the professor overheard their plans; he decided to work a little joke on the boys and secreted himself in the carriage and when they came and rolled the vehicle out very laboriously, north of town, two miles away, he came out from his hiding place and said, "Well, boys, I have enjoyed my ride, you can now take me back home," which they did in a very crestfallen manner. On another occasion they took a roan horse that belonged to Mr. Hall (?) and they painted black stripes on his ribs, thus making a zebra out of him; they fixed him up in great shape and then took him down town and tied him in a conspicuous place on the public square and they felt they were well repaid for their trouble when they saw a large crowd gathered around wondering what on earth it could be. On another occasion I remember that the class in mathematics was assembled in the teacher's room, and as he opened his desk out flew a rooster. It crowed and raised such a disturbance that there were very little mathematics that day. One more—the girls, or I should say, young ladies, had a majority in that day. So many young ladies attended the female schools that when they were added to the local population there were an abundance of girls in town. I must have had eight sweethearts at one time, on the string, and the situation became so acute that censors were appointed at these various female schools and they were so relentless that we could get no communication whatever, and finally, as a last resort, someone had noticed that the Methodist Female college, at it was known at that time, a basket that was strung on a pulley in which they pulled up wood to a higher building, and he conceived the idea of using this basket as a sort of postoffice and a large number of communications went up to the girls, until it was finally discovered and done away with.

Mr. Bateman's School.
I well remember Mr. Bateman's methods. I went to his school and he had one of the most perfect order and discipline in Jacksonville I ever saw. Everything went by the tap of his pencil. If a boy became obstreperous or anything of that sort, Mr. Bateman pointed to a little room adjoining and the boy marched out and after a time Mr. Bateman would step in and have a chat with him; he did not take a ruler, rattan or strap with him, but instead he took a little moral suasion and that little talk was sufficient, and when the boy left that little room he usually wore a solemn expression and one trip was generally enough and he seldom made more than one to the little room. Mr. Bateman was a model teacher and called by many the greatest educator that Illinois ever produced.

Those present at the banquet were: Miss Emma Daniels, Warren Price, John McBride, Miss Elizabeth Collins, James H. Bumper, Mrs. Elizabeth Bacon, Mrs. C. B. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Tobey, Miss Emma B. Patterson, Q. H. Chapin, Col. W. H. and Mrs. Edgar, Oliver S. Green, Mr. Kassel and Misses Kassel, Dr. and Mrs. Kaufman, Robert L. Montgomery, Mrs. Louise Short, Capt. J. M. Swales, Miss Myrtle Swales, James Mansfield, Mr. and Mrs. George Morton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rannels, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bulkley, Mrs. M. R. Allen, Miss Clara E. Allen, Miss Borthia I. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Wesner, Henry Keyes, Dr. Emily Selby, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Kinaber, Mrs. Frank Hine, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Loomis.

GETTING FACTS IN MILK BUSINESS.
Newport, Maine, Nov. 11.—The Boston Chamber of Commerce is holding here tonight a hearing on dairy conditions in this section of Maine, as a part of its campaign to ascertain the condition of the milk business of New England. The Maine dairies are valued at $5,000,000. The altered conditions in the dairy business are subjects of investigation. Ten years ago, the majority of the product was shipped as butter. Now most of it is shipped as cream and milk. The work of the cream-testing associations, the methods of sanitation and care of the cattle are also discussed.

KANSAS CITY MARKETS.

Kansas City Stock Yards, Nov. 9, 1914.—Although shippers had been advised to keep stockers and feeders at home this week, on account of the quarantine in Illinois, Iowa and other states, a fair number arrived today. Total cattle receipts were 34,000 head. There was no difficulty of getting rid of killing grades, as local packing houses are operating at much more nearly their full capacity than heretofore, and there was a good order trade for points in the east.

Stockers and feeders declined rapidly after Monday last week, closing the week 50 to 75c lower. Sales of that class today are slow, and prices weak. Some Colorado feeders weighing 920 lbs. sold at $6.40, a week ago they would have brought $7. Good white face panhandle stock calves brought $7 today, which were worth $7.75 first of last week. Kansas and Missouri are practically the only buyers and while their need of young cattle is great at this time, it is not sufficient to raise prices any, and the present low level will probably continue, if it does not go lower.

Some of the stockers and feeders here today, were started to market before the full effect of the quarantine orders was known, and receipts this week will probably be light. Of course, immediately after the quarantine is raised, there will be very heavy shipments to market, and prices may continue low to the first buyers. In the fat cattle division, the feature today was the sale of 16 head of Missouri short horns, 1935 lbs. average, at $10.75 per cwt, or $208 per head. These cattle were being pointed for the American Royal Show, which was to have been held here next week, but which has been declared off for this year.—J. A. Dickart, Market Correspondent.

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

SLUMP IN WHEAT MARKET IS DUE TO TALK OF PEACE

Speculators Jump to Selling Side of Market on Vague Rumors—Corn Shows Considerable Strength.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Peace talk gave the wheat market today a sudden downward turn after an early advance due to active buying for export. The close was unsettled at a decline of 3/4 to 3/8 net. Corn finished 3/4 to 3/8 off oats unchanged to a shade lower and provisions
3/4 to 1/2 above last night.

Notwithstanding that peace rumors were vague and seemed to be without any solid basis speculators jumped in a hurry to the selling side of the wheat market. Many speculators' orders came into play on the closing break, which reached as much as 2 1/2c compared with the top figures that had been attained soon after the opening. Just before the close, however, traders as a rule seemed to have concluded that the policy reports were valueless and that a rally was in order.

It was estimated that possibly 3,000,000 bushels of wheat were taken by exporters, although not more than a quarter of that total was supposed to be for immediate shipping. Buying of December delivery was said to have been especially free on the part of Europeans at Winnipeg and Kansas City. According to a leading authority here the requirements of importing countries this year are at the rate of 100 bushels for every 75 bushels available.

Corn showed considerable strength in the face of the break in the price of wheat. Continued good export business helped the bulls and so did predictions of unsettled weather. Oats were sustained by heavy purchasing for a big elevator company. Besides, two full cargoes were said to have been disposed of at the seaboard, one to go to Bristol, England.

RECOMMENDS REDUCTION IN MINOR LEAGUE SALARY LIMIT

Committee of National Association Makes Recommendation Which is Adopted by Class A. and B. Leagues.

Omaha, Nov. 11.—A horizontal reduction of 20 per cent in the salary limit paid by minor league clubs was the recommendation of the committee on constitutional revision of the National association of professional baseball leagues. It was adopted, so far as it concerned class A. and Class B. leagues. Leagues in Class AA. were permitted to revise their salary lists as fitted their convenience and leagues in the C. and D. Class were given another day in which to agree on a limit that would be satisfactory to them and make report tomorrow.

The recommendation of the committee followed an address by President Garry Herrmann of the National Commission in which he declared that organized baseball leagues should have salary limits which would be in keeping with the gate receipts.

President Herrmann reviewed last year's disastrous financial operation of the baseball business and declared that immediate and drastic action was necessary for the preservation of organized baseball. "There must be a greater economy in the operation of the business department of the national sport," said Mr. Herrmann. "There must be established a salary limit which will be in accord with the gate receipts. The time is past when 'angels' can be called upon to support the business. The smallest minor is entitled to the same protection that is accorded the greatest major league. The salary limit should be established not to fit the gate receipts of the biggest club in the league but rather gauged by the income of the smallest."

President Herrmann told of his conferences with Federal League officials and declared all his talks had been in an individual capacity and not as a representative either of the National Commission or of the Cincinnati Baseball Club.

Animated discussion of the limits of Classes C. and D. resulted in the case going over until tomorrow. Several representatives of these minors declared they would be unable to exist with the proposed limitation on them, especially as it had to do with salaries.

President Kearney announced the removal of the Springfield franchise of the Three I League to Rock Island. The indebtedness of the Springfield team will be absorbed by the business men of Rock Island, it was stated and the team put on a substantial financial footing.

Baseball War Near End.
Chicago, Nov. 11.—In an interview here today President James A. Gilmore of the Federal League expressed the opinion that peace between the outlaw league and organized baseball was near and that negotiations might be concluded at a conference scheduled for tomorrow in Chicago between Garry Herrmann, chairman of the National Baseball commission, Ban Johnson, president of the American League, and Charles Weeghman, president of the Chicago Federal League Club.

He declared that if the plan under consideration goes through control of the Chicago National League team will be acquired by Charles Weeghman and his business associates and that the club will play on the Federal League grounds on the North Side which will be enlarged and improved for its new use. He also said that the new clubs would be made up of the best players in the present National League team and the Federal League club.

Among other statements made by President Gilmore were:
That no city would have more than two clubs next season under the reorganization.

That the Federal League teams not absorbed by the major league in the reorganization would be incorporated into another league with perhaps a new name.

That there would be no International League teams in Baltimore or Buffalo.

That Garry Herrmann did not act as private individual in his recent conferences with President Weeghman at which peace plans were discussed.

That the American association and the International League will be given a higher classification under the new plan.

Organized on Major League Basis.
The Federal League was organized on a major league basis and will continue as such, no matter what deal may be made with organized baseball, according to a statement made tonight by President James A. Gilmore of the Federal League, who declared all the owners of the league stood together for a fair settlement. Gilmore declared that no member of the organization had any intention of selling out to the detriment of the Federal League.

"The Federal League stands ready to do anything that will promote the interest of baseball in general. They realize that warfare, such as has existed during the last year is detrimental to the interest of the game; and, for that reason, more than for any other, they are willing to make a settlement on any honorable basis. If such a settlement is not consummated before the 1915 season, it is not the fault of the Federal League officials."

"We admit that in order to bring such a condition about it would be necessary to transfer certain franchises and a committee of Federal League officials is willing to meet a committee from organized baseball and endeavor to solve the problem."

"There is a thorough understanding among all officers of the Federal League and there is no fear on the part of any official that one or more of the others are going to

A. F. OF L. CONVENTION HEARS REPORTS OF CANADIAN DELEGATES

Delegates Also Listen to Addresses on Prevention of Occupational Diseases and Accidents.

Philadelphia, Nov. 11.—The convention of the American Federation of Labor today listened to reports presented by the fraternal delegates to and from the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress, also heard addresses on the prevention of occupational diseases and industrial accidents and then marked time while waiting for committees to make reports on the various matters offered to them. Some of these committees will make partial reports tomorrow.

The usual grist in the resolutions were filed with the secretary and referred to appropriate committees by President Samuel Gompers. Among the resolutions was one which asked the federation to urge the New York legislature to amend the workmen's compensation law so that no physical examination of employees will be necessary before they are given work by an employer. The resolution charged that certain employers in New York state are requiring applicants to undergo a physical test in order to give them an opportunity.

Santiago Iglesias, delegate from the Porto Rico Free Federation of Workingmen, presented a resolution that the American federation petition congress to investigate the "deplorable industrial conditions and general government" of Porto Rico. This resolution also was referred to committee.

Several resolutions bearing on working conditions in the Panama canal zone were also sent to committees. One of these declared that Americans accepting government employment in the zone should be guaranteed at least six months steady work. The resolution gave instances where men who were hired to work in Panama were laid off shortly after reaching the zone because of lack of work. Another resolution urged the federation to take some action against the government continuing to pay 20 to 30 cents an hour to alien plasterers in the Panama canal zone which the resolution said is a discrimination against American plasterers who receive 75 cents an hour.

A retirement law for superannuated employees was also advocated in a resolution presented by the postal clerk's union.

WILL RETURN TO MADEIRA.
Daniel Frank and Manuel Frank, his nephew, expect to leave shortly for a visit with homefolks at their home in Funchal, Island of Madeira. They came to Jacksonville six years ago and are much pleased with what they have seen and heard in America. One of them has been employed in Capps & Sons factory and the other has been engaged in house painting. The young men are under $150 bonds each to the government of Portugal to return for military duty if called upon or forfeit the amount of their bonds. They will return in a short time if not called upon by the government.

The city of Funchal is the capital of the Island of Madeira and has a population of 21,000. It belongs to Portugal. It is a land of summer and sunshine, and has no winter. All the tropical fruits grow there and it is quite a resort in winter for those from colder climates. In size it is 40 x 60 miles.

ROADS PLAN CONSOLIDATION.

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 11.—Officials of the Toronto, Hamilton & Buffalo railroad met here today with officials of the Erie & Ontario railroad, with a view to effecting a plan of consolidation of the two lines. The plan will be submitted to the shareholders.

NO SPECIAL TRAIN.

The committee from the Woman's Clubs, who had the matter in hand of securing a special train to Springfield and return gave up the idea after they found it impossible to secure a sufficient number to justify the expense. Those who want to attend the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs either went on regular trains or in private conveyances.

SCOTT'S THEATRE WILL PRESENT TWO GREAT PICTURES TODAY

"Sparks of Fate" and "The Gamblers" Will Be Included in the Special Offering Today—Hydro Aeroplane and Wireless Are Featured.

At Scott's today one of two great features offered is the thrilling Esanay drama "Sparks of Fate". The play is a thrilling story of the sea in two acts and the cast includes: Frank Graham, a wireless operator—Francis X. Bushman.

Wilbur Hayes, a rival operator—Bryant Washburn.

Ruth Donald, their sweetheart—Ruth Stonehouse.

The plot centers around little Ruth Donald who is loved by two wireless operators, Wilbur Hayes and Frank Graham. Ruth does not know which one she really loves best. So finally the rivals, in a moment of passion, decide to settle the matter with cards. The loser is to leave town.

The game is played in the wireless station with the old captain of the Steamer Melba as a witness. Wilbur cheats and wins and Frank, living up to the agreement, leaves town the next day on the Melba. That night an explosion occurs in the boiler room and, to add to the horror, a storm comes up. The ship's wireless operator is injured, so Frank takes the key and flashes the signal for help. Wilbur gets the message, but refuses to spread the alarm, knowing his rival is on board.

Just before the Melba sinks the old captain confesses to Frank that he saw Wilbur cheat in the game of cards. Frank manages to escape and several hours later is picked up by an aviator in a hydro-aeroplane. He is taken to a hospital where he is confined to his bed for some time. Meanwhile Ruth, thinking that Frank will not return, is about to wed Wilbur. A notice is printed in the newspapers stating the couple will be married the next day. Frank, just recovering in the hospital, happens to read this. He seeks the assistance of the aviator and a thrilling race follows in the air. Frank arrives just as his rival is about to marry Ruth. He tells her of Wilbur's cheating and the latter is forced to leave town in disgrace. Of course, Ruth turns to her first love, and all ends happily.

"The Gamblers" is a Lubin special in five parts founded on the play by Charles Klein. In this story Isabel Emerson and Catherine Spencer are old school friends and it is the great wish of Isabel that Catherine shall marry her brother, Wilbur. James Darwin, a young attorney, is the interest of business comes into the life of the Spencer family and falls in love with Catherine. Wilbur is so immersed in business that he does not play the love game satisfactorily and Darwin wins out. Catherine tells Darwin that she does not love him really strong but he persuades her that she will in time and they get married. Catherine in a burst of confidence tells Darwin that she really was in love with Wilbur, and the husband being of a jealous disposition, the drifting apart begins. The developments which follow are intensely interesting and concern the business operations of Darwin and Wilbur Emerson as well as their love affairs.

PEOPLE CAME TO DEFENSE OF SAN FRANCISCO SLAYER

Joseph Lococo Who Shot Contractor Who Owed Him Wages, Is Upheld.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 11.—The public, the newspapers and the police have come to the defense of Joseph Lococo who shot and killed George Gray, a contractor, yesterday because his family was starving and he could not collect wages due him.

Subscriptions for Lococo's family began pouring into the newspapers today. One daily opened a bureau to handle these funds. Another paper employed attorneys for Lococo's defense. Policemen raised a fund and sent it to the slayer's family.

Lococo's plea in police court today was that he was maddened by hunger and worry over the suffering of his wife and two children. He claims too that when he fired on Gray the latter was about to strike him.

Despatches say that in Los Angeles contributions also were raised for Lococo's family.

BARNEY OLDFIELD WINS

LOS ANGELES-PHOENIX RACE

Captures 673 Mile Auto Contest on Elapsed Time—Louis Nikrent Second.

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 11.—Barney Oldfield drove into the fair grounds here this afternoon, winner of the 673 mile automobile race from Los Angeles, on elapsed time. Louis Nikrent, No. 8, was second; Beaudet, No. 1, third; Bramlette, No. 19, was beaten out of fourth place by W. C. Durant No. 2. Running time from Los Angeles was as follows: Oldfield—23:01:35 2-5.

Nikrent—23:05:23 2-5.
Beaudet—25:05:23 4-5.
Durant—26:01.

Bramlette—26:20:40 1-5.
Nikrent was first into the fair grounds at 3:39:21 p. m. Bramlette followed and Oldfield was third at 3:56.

Beaudet came in a minute later and Durant tailed in at 4:35.

All the racers were encased in mud and garments of mud hurried up from rain soaked roads by their car wheels. Oldfield had to fish his car out of the swollen Agua Fria river with a team of horses and just outside of Glendale, nine miles from the finish, engine trouble stopped him again for a brief period.

SIEGEL TRIAL WELL UNDER WAY.

Merchant and Banker Held to Charge of Grand Larceny.

Geneseo, N. Y., Nov. 11.—The trial of Henry Siegel, former merchant and banker, on a charge of grand larceny, was well under way when court adjourned this afternoon. Arthur C. Train, assistant district attorney of New York county, completed the presentation of the people's case and late in the afternoon H. B. Howell, vice-president of the National Bank of Commerce in New York, was called as the first witness. In closing the outline of the case that the people will try to prove against Siegel, Mr. Train declared that the Siegel chain of stores, chief of which was the Fourteenth Street Store, in New York, was going behind financially from $100,000 to $300,000 a year and that the principals knew it but would neither close out their business nor take refuge in bankruptcy because "the juggling of the books and financial affairs of the concern then would be laid bare."

Vice-president Howell's testimony was intended to show that the money advanced to the Siegel concern was loaned on Siegel's written statements. The integrity of these statements, it was said, will be attacked later.

WAR TAX COLLECTIONS MAY EXCEED ESTIMATES

Washington, Nov. 11.—Under a ruling by collector Johnson of the treasury, collections from the war tax may be several million dollars in excess of the estimates made by congress.

The new ruling will require payment of the stamp tax on all transactions of building and loan associations throughout the United States. It is said to affect more than 6,400 associations, having nearly 3,000,000 members and handling annually about $1,750,000,000. The opinion of the collector differs from the opinion of the commissioner of internal revenue and an assistant attorney-general who interpreted revenue tax law of 1898. The language in both the present law and that of Spanish war days is held by loan association officers here to be identical.

It is probable that an effort will be made by the associations to fight the present taxation of the law. It was pointed out today that the transactions to be taxed are in small amounts, involving a vast number of documents all of which would be subject to the stamp duties. No opinion has been asked from the department of justice but if protests are made officially it is possible that Secretary McAdoo will seek an opinion from the department of justice.

Mrs. John B. Barbour and little daughter Adelaide, are spending the week end with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Lindsey. Mrs. Barbour will return to her home on South East street Thursday evening.

OFFICIAL SENATORIAL VOTE.

MISS NELLIE F. ROACH BECOMES BRIDE OF JOHN MEANY WEDNESDAY

Wedding Takes Place at Catholic Church—Take Trip to the North—Will Reside on East College Street.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock at the Church of Our Savior when Miss Nellie Florence Roach became the bride of John Patrick Meany. The ceremony was performed by Very Rev. J. W. Crowe and was witnessed by a large number of relatives and friends of the couple. The bride's maid was Miss Marie Meany, a sister of the groom, and Charles E. Flanagan of Waverly, a cousin of the bride was best man. As the bridal party entered the church Miss Margaret Ring played the wedding march from Lohengrin. An appropriate selection was played during the ceremony and at the recessional. Meldelsohn's wedding march was played.

The bride wore a tailored suit of dark brown broadcloth, with a hat to match, and carried a white prayer book with a bridal shower marker. The bride's maid wore a green tailored suit of broadcloth and a black hat.

An elaborate five course wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride immediately after the ceremony, the guest list being limited to relatives and near friends of the couple. Very Rev. J. W. Crowe was the guest of honor. No little amusement was occasioned by the efforts of the bride and groom to slip away from their friends in an automobile for Springfield. It was only after some time that they did get away, but they were unable to give their friends the slip and two crowded automobiles started on the trip. From Springfield Mr. and Mrs. Meany will go to Chicago and take a wedding trip to northern points. After December 1 they will be at home to their friends at 214 East College street.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Roach, of 403 East North street and has been a resident of this city for the past twelve years. She received her education in the parochial schools and graduated from Rount college with the class of 1909. For four years she has held a position as clerk in the Hillier Dry Goods store. She is a young lady of many admirable traits of character and has a host of admiring friends. Mr. Meany is a son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Meany of 333 North East street and was born and reared in this city. He also received his education in the parochial schools and was a student at Rount college. For several years he has held a position in the Knollenberg cigar store and is held in high esteem by a large circle of friends. The popularity in which the young couple is held by their many friends is attested by the large number of beautiful and useful presents which they received.
